A Few Facts

To Ponder Over.

No merchant whose expenses are large can sell goods at a small profit. We do most our work ourselves, buy our goods from the best houses in the city, and best of all, content ourselves with the lowest margin of profit.

Our New Fall Goods

Are in and our store is crowded with Bargains for everybody.

We buy your produce, pay the highest price for it, and believe we can save you money on anything that can be obtained in a first-class

GENERAL STORE.

Come to see us, we take as much pleasure in showing you our goods as some merchants do in selling you.

The old-fashioned way of killing chickens by wringing their heads off, belongs to the dark ages. The only up-to-date way is to hang the chickens up by the feet and cut their heads off. In this way the blood runs out, leaving the meat clean and white. Try it once and you will never wring another chicken's head off.

A rather unusual Christmas present was received by Grimm Bros., saloon keepers, at Chattanooga. They had been warned by Mrs. A. E. Riordan not to let her husband have any more whisky. On the day he died it was alleged that he bought whisky of them. She sued and obtained judgment for $2,500. In the meantime they had placed a tombstone over Riordan's grave. She sent it back to them for a Christmas gift.

The attachment of subscribers to a well-conducted newspaper is fully confirmed by publishers. So long as a paper pursues a just, honorable and judicious course, says the Springfield, Vt., Reporter, meeting the wants of its customers in all respects, the ties of friendship between the subscriber and the paper are as hard to break up by an outside third party as the links which bind old friends in business or social life. Occasional defects and errors in a newspaper are overlooked by those who have become attached through its perusal for years. They sometimes become displeased with it on account of something which has slipped into its columns, and may stop taking it, but absence of the family sheet at their homes or offices for a few weeks becomes a privation, and, they conclude to take it again. No friendship on earth is more constant than that contracted by a reader for a journal that makes an honest and earnest effort to merit continued support.

America's great patriots were men of humility. When an expert in genealogy tried to convince Abraham Lincoln that he was of distinguished descent, the President listened with an amused attention, but when the said expert offered to devise a suitable coat of arms and asked Mr. Lincoln what design he would prefer, he responded, "How would a pair of shirt sleeves do? Most of my ancestors did their work with their coats off."—Ex.

"What kind of serpent was it that tempted Eve and what kind of fruit was the forbidden fruit?"—I. M. D. Well, Mr. Devil, I will not answer according to the Darwin theory, nor quote Charley Moore, but simply give you my own opinion.

First we will call the serpent conscience. I do not believe it was a real an ophidian reptile. I think it was Eve's conscience that tempted her to eat of the forbidden fruit and you know when she had transgressed the holy law she must have been miserable and as misery always wants company she went to Adam and gave him some of the fruit and he also became a transgressor of the holy law. Well, according to the holy scripture, they both ate thereof and their eyes were opened. It could not have been a crab apple nor a persimmon, for when you take a bite of either you will naturally close your eyes, so I call the tree sin and it bears more fruit and kinds of fruit than there is hairs in your wig. Eve I think reached up and got a large bunch of curiosity and ate so much that she had a night-mare. Then she was a "Hoss" with Adam and he ate what she left to get even with her. "Old Nick."

ARE YOU A DEMOCRAT?

An old adage reads: "There is a place for everything," and for everything to be in its place, the LOUISVILLE DISPATCH should find a place in the home of every DEMOCRAT in the SUNNY SOUTH. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people, and is always ready to fight for the cause of the people. IT STANDS SQUARELY ON THE CHICAGO PLAT-FORM, without the aid or consent of the Gold Bug Monopolies, and a fair comparison of its news service (now being furnished over leased wires by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter Ocean and the Northern Press Association) with that of any other paper, will fully verify its Motto, "If you see it in the Dispatch it's so, and if it's so it is always in the Dispatch."

The Dispatch also has a staff of over 300 active correspondents in the South, and will POSITIVELY GUARANTEE MORE THAN DOUBLE THE SOUTHERN NEWS of any other Louisville paper. Get the Dispatch; it gives the news and tells the truth about it.

Daily, 8 pages; Sunday, 24 pages; Weekly, 8 pages. We club with the Weekly Dispatch at the remarkably low price of LOCAL BREVITIES.

We had a little winter weather the first of the week.

A portion of this week has been pleasant without fire.

Begin the new year by paying up all your honest debts.

Rev. Albert Easter, of Iron Mound, was in town Thursday.

You want all the local news, eh? Then subscribe for the TIMES.

There are ten divorce suits pending in the Wolfe Circuit Court.

Bradfordsville, a town of 500 inhabitants, has not a single negro inhabitant.

Marion Dawson, of Indian Fields, was in the burg two days of this week.

Rev. V. B. Daughette, of Merritt, was observed on our streets Wednesday.

Field R. Elkin, of Winchester is visiting his nephews, J. W. and J. H. Dawson.

A negro child with three eyes is said to have been born last week in the Buck Creek valley. The babe only lived two days.

Government engineers have reached Valley View at which place a lock and dam will probably be placed in the Kentucky river.

All but six of the Sheriffs in the State have settled with the Auditor of State in full. The delinquent counties are Casey, Martin, Morgan, Knox, Pulaski and Whitley.

The Clay City Chronicle has turned its toes to the sky, having suspended publication with the old year. The plant has been leased and moved to Winchester.

Squire Smith, a negro wanted at Madisonville, Ohio, for assaulting a white woman, and who was said to be in the Snow Creek and Log Lick neighborhood last week, has been arrested at Owingsville.

Saturday and Sunday are regular meeting days at the Baptist Church. Meeting on Saturday has been changed from 11 o'clock a. m. to 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. A. J. Curtis, who went to Illinois last March, of course had the TIMES to follow. He told us the other day that he received every paper which was welcomed by every member of his family.

Eld. M. P. Lowry is in Estill county this week. He has been called to the pastoral charge of Mt. Tabor Church in that county, a very flourishing Christian Church on the Kentucky river. —Winchester Democrat.

There is no better way of passing off the wearisome hours of the winter season than by reading the Louisville Dispatch, Kentucky's leading paper, and the Spoutspring TIMES Estill's only paper. Both papers one year 75c.

The greatest man is he who chooses the right with invincible resolution, who resists the sorest temptations from within and without, who bears the heaviest burdens cheerfully, who is calmest in storms, most fearless under menace and frowns, and whose reliance on truth, on virtue, on God is unflinching.—Ex.

Conway, in Rockcastle county, has a freak in the form of a child having neither arms nor legs. A Mrs. Franklin gave birth to this peculiar human form six weeks ago and strange to say, it is in good health and bids fair to live. The child is perfectly developed otherwise. —Richmond Pantagraph.

Andy Coburn, a saloon-keeper of Knott county, while intoxicated shot his sweetheart, Emily Bradley. In a few hours the girl died, but before she died she requested that Coburn be released from custody. The young man stung by remorse, put the pistol in his saloon, and set fire to the building, burning both together.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la-grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracting any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

Store House, For Rent.

The store building now occupied by J. W. Dawson & Bro, will be rented for the year 1899, possession to be given March 1st. Also a nice, cozy cottage. Best store house in town, and no better place in the county to sell goods. Apply at this office.

Rogues will always be found out in some way. Whoever is a wolf will act as a wolf some time or other, that is most certain of all things.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

The Pineville Courier has the following concerning a former Clark county preacher: "Rev. W. H. Childers preached a new idea sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday morning. He believes in the expansion of our government and its civilization and thinks that the whole world would be in the millennial state if Uncle Sam had full control. He predicts that in thirty years the stars and stripes will receive tribute from every spot on the globe.—Winchester Democrat. Rev. Childers is a former resident of this place.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as speedy as the first but for the fact that, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.' For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

The heaviest snow of the winter fell Saturday evening and that night. It was six inches. The thermometer registered in the neighborhood of zero Sunday night. The snow lasted but a day or two, however, as the ground was not frozen and it turned warm the first of the week.

Absence of occupation is not rest; a mind quite vacant is a mind distressed.

He who lives only to benefit himself confers on the world a benefit when he dies.

The horrible news comes from Kansas, says the Louisville Post, that a young man climbed a cornstalk recently to see how the ears were getting along, and now the corn is growing up faster than he can climb down. Three men have undertaken to cut down the stalk, but, owing to rapid growth, it is feared that they will not succeed in time to prevent the young man's starvation. He is subsisting on raw corn and has already thrown down four bushels of cobs, and it is now thought that his supply is almost exhausted. When the men began the attempt of cutting down the stalk, they were able to converse with the young man by means of a speaking trumpet and could see him plainly with a pair of field glasses. Now, however, although he is climbing downward to the best of his ability, he has disappeared from view in the skies, and the only evidence that he is still on the stalk is the occasional falling of a cob from above, which usually penetrates the earth about eight feet.

Religion is intended for both worlds, and right living for this is the best preparation for the next. Character is decisive of destiny.

Did you ever know anyone who had the same sort of religion as the old negro who rose in prayer meeting and said: "Bred-dern and sistern, I'ze been 'er mighty mean nigger in my time. I's had er heap ups and downs—specially downs, since I done jined de church. I'ze stole chic-ens an' water-mellions, I'ze cuss'd, I'ze got drunk, I'ze cuss'd eraps, I'ze slashed obber-wif my razor, and I'ze done lighter obber things. But I'ank de Lord, bred-dern, I'ze nebber yet lost my religion."

Curious Names of Kentucky Towns.

The names of towns and villages in Kentucky develop some queer facts. For instance, there is the long name, McGoldricks-ville, and the extremely short name, Ink. A few of the curious and unusual names of hamlets and country neighborhoods I happen to recollect just now are: Tywhoppity, Ingierubber, Possum Trot, Frog Level, Dog Walk, Bully Boy, Slaughter House, Broken Bridge, Misery Mount, Maiden Blush, Tipsey Creek, Barlow Flats, Rabbit Hash, Ribblemerock, Redberry-rock, Ranson Free, Buncombe Bog, Ubetyou, Uno, Unit, Democrat, Darling, Digitout, Fossil Fork, Rat'snest, Eighty-eight, Sunset, Salt Creek, Ingomar, Limberneck, Chickory Creek, Hickorynut, Holy Haunt, Tick-ley turn, Tadpole Bank, Lovel-yville, Batchtown, Chestnut Grove, Whangdoole, whereaway, Crickmorecrack, Caesar's Coast, Liberty, Love, Mud, Money, Gold, Buckle, Silver Dust, Goosebone, Beefburg, Buzzard Roost and Tippletub.—Louisville Post.
